

HEADLINES OF THE YEAR 1913

Reeve-

Council- Jas. Lucas, H. Carmichel, Jas. Forman, S. Graham

January- Clarence Cook is prepared to sharpen skates, having purchased Dorman Cobman's outfit.
- Mr. Wm Ettey has rented the market garden of Mr. Edwin Hartry. Mr. Ettey has recently come from Yorkshire, England. Mr. Hartry is joining the Bell Telephone Co.
- strong encouragement is being given the idea of a radial line from Toronto via Markham and Stouffville.
- a by-law to prevent the cows from running the streets is being well supported.

February- A vote is being taken regarding financial assistance for a canning factory. 108 voted for the by-law as against 8 opposed.

- J. McE Murray is manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce branch in Port Perry

March - The Canning factory people have bought the Curling Rink.
- Dr. C. W. Moon of Seagrave has sold his veterinary business to Dr. Ernest Wooldridge.
- The Ford Garage have opened in Swan's carriage shop. Percy Graham, proprietor.

April - Mr. Art Dowson will give up blacksmithing and devote his time to the livery business.
- the Agricultural Society have taken an option on the skating rink; if purchased it will be used to construct buildings at the Fair Grounds.
- Jim Johnson, Indian guide, is dead. Hundreds of Torontonians knew him as the greatest guide of the whole of the Iroquois valley. His home was on Scugog.
- Mr. James Carnegie has purchased the lot next to the bowling green and plans to build a new brick dwelling there.

June-

The Wm Mills planning factoring is burned down.

- an independant telephone line has been erected from Port Perry to Greenbank.

November - Mr. Geo. Davey has sold his business to Mr. Sydnie.

December - Jas. Leask & Sons have for the 4th time taken the Grand Championship honors for the best steer at the Toronto Fat Stock Show.

- The band has been re-organized.