Former Scugog Minister Passes

Rev. Frank Gordon Weir, a United Church minister on Scugog Island from 1926 to 1930 died in Toronto recently.

While on Scugog Island he devoted much of his time to work among the Indians on the Island. He also worked among Indians at Grand River and Saugeen before moving to a pastorate at St. Claire.

During his period as a minister at Scugog Island he wrote a book "Scugog and its Environs" which was printed at the Port Perry Star.

He was a respected and well liked man on the Island, but unfortunately information in regard to Rev. Weir is very scarce.

He leaves his wife, Rosetta Weir, two sisters, Mrs. Wilfred Mills of Toronto and Mrs. Jas. McNeil of Vancouver and a brother Roland, of Toronto.
