

History of Honeydale 1954 -- continued.

Across the road to the south there was a small house where Sam Griffin lived at one time, and then his son Ted lived there. The house was later remodelled and is now owned by Fred Phipps.