

Mr. Keyes, the field was extended to Madawaska, and Whitney. Services were conducted in Kearney and these places twice a month. Mr. Moyes also served this circuit. In 1930 the circuit was again ~~again~~ changed to the present one, Emsdale, Nozar, ~~and~~ and Kearney, with summer students serving Scotia, Sand Lake and Fern Glen. Some of the ministers will be recalled as, Messrs Geddes, Smith, Lockhart, Mason, Edmund, Lahore, Gay, Cochrane, Cocknel, White, Locklin, Welsh, Alp, Robbins, Reid, Bishop, McEwen, Keyes, Moyes, Middle, Sneyd, Burton, Morris, Rintoul, Stevens, Dabson, Packman. On several occasions, Rev. F. Manktelow, a retired Baptist minister, has supplied the field.

There has always been a Sunday-school, the first one being held in the home of Mr. & Mrs. H. Groome with Peter Shaw as Supt. Other superintendents have been Mrs. J. Lawson, Mrs. O. Crocker, Dr. Pawlin, Mr. Durdale, Mrs. (Dr.) Moe Murchy, Mrs. M. Harkness, Mrs. S. F. Bice, Mr. J. R. Teasdale, Mrs. H. Hoover, Mrs. (Dr.) Peacock.

The Ladies Aid or W.A. was first organized in 1897 with Mrs. Robt. McConkey as president.

For many years the weekly prayer-meeting was a source of inspiration and help. On several occasions there has also been a flourishing Young Peoples.

A great many social events centered around the life of the church. Many happy memories are associated with the tea-meetings, harvest dinners, Christmas Concerts. Quite fresh in the minds of many is the party given Mr. Keyes when he returned with his bride.
