

the school will be remembered by many, in a variety of ways, no doubt. In some cases the year of their teaching and salary will be given in brackets. W. H. Nixon ($600.) Miss Giltman ($500) Miss Gervis ($500) Mr. Wilkinson, Misses Fennelly, Milliken ($350) Miss Stubbs. In 1910 Mrs. Crooker taught for 500. Others were Misses Orser, Summerville, Messrs. Black & Forbes ($700) In 1915 the combined salaries were $1152. In 1916 Mr. Forbes joined the army, and was replaced by Mrs. Dipsom. In this year all the school business was done for $2,202.78. Many of the following teachers will be well remembered. Misses Robertson, Graham ($400) Flavelle (Gertrude) Tatten, Woods, Johnstone, Richards, Smith, Shane, Bice (Bessie) ($850) White ($1200), Mc Donald, Sutherland, Herod, Flavelle (Delores, neice of Gertrude), Mrs. Hammond, & Messrs Reid (1921 - $1500) J. R. Teasdale, F. Mason, Fisher, Leeder, & Proudfoot.

Some of those who taught in the separate school were