

1996

Iron machine

PACK UP YOUR UNDIES
(Tune - Pack up your troubles)

Pack up your undies in your old tote bag
And smile, smile, smile,
Though you forgot to pack your hubby's lunch
Smile girls that's the style.
Did you wind the old 'larm clock
And put the garbage out? OH!
Pack up your undies in your old tote bag
and Smile SMILE SMILE.

(Sung to the tune "The Grand Old Duke of York")

The ladies of the W.I.
Have lots of work to do.
We plan and vote and make amends -
Must hurry to get through.

And when we are up, we're up,
And when we are down, We're down.
And when we're only half way up,
We never stop to frown.

It's a small World

There are many needs in the world today
We can all find jobs without any pay
And wherever you go it is certain to show
It's a small, small world.

It's a small world after all,
It's a small world after all,
It's a small world after all,
It's a small, small world.

So to all the gals of the Institute
We would lift our hand and to you salute
May the deeds that you do bring a reward to you
It's a small, small world.

WHERE IS JOHN? (round)

Where is John?
The old gray hen has left her pen
Oh, Where is John?
The cows are in the corn again
Oh, John. (hold for 3 counts)