LORD AND LADY TWEEDSMUIR

Lord Tweedsmuir: was born John Buchan in Scotland, Aug. 25th, 1875, the son of Rev. John Buchan. A historian and novelist, he became Governor-General of Canada from 1935 to 1940. Called to the Bar in 1901, he was a member of British House of Commons for Scottish Universities from 1927 to 1935. In 1935 he was titled "Baron Tweedsmuir". His best known biographies and historical works were:

Sir Walter Raleigh;
Julius Caesar;
The Massacre of Glencoe;

Sir Walter Scott;
Oliver Cromwell;
The King's Grace, etc.

He was author of novels such as: The 39 Steps;
Salute to Adventurers;
The Three Hostages, etc.

"Memory Hold the Door" was his autobiography and one of his latest works. John Buchan, the first Lord Tweedsmuir, died in Montreal on February 11th, 1940. His library was bequeathed to Queen's University at Kingston, Ontario.

Lady Tweedsmuir: Susan, wife of our beloved Governor-General, has written many plays, children's books and reminiscences. She was an ardent W.I. member in England, and was made an Honorary Life Member of F.W.I.O. She advocated that our organization across Canada compile the histories of our local communities and villages. She returned to England following the death of her husband, and is still residing there. (1962)
