

Canada 125

Celebrate Canada's 125th!!

A very Canadian celebration

An enduring symbol of Canada is the Royal Canadian Mounted Police musical ride which will be seen all across the country this year as Canada celebrates its 125th anniversary. The ride began more than a century ago in Regina. See page 24 for more details and C.A.R.P. News' expanded travel section starting page 17 for information and updates on cross-Canada travel. Photo courtesy R.C.M.P.

1992

An Institute Prayer

Bless our Institute we pray, keep us caring every day,
Caring for the treasured things, facing all that each day brings,
Bless the places that we meet, keep us kind in what we speak,
Love we pray that we may be, Ever true in love for Thee.
Bless the children we hold dear, may they never learn to fear,
Bless the homes where we can share in all the things for which we care.
Bless, O Lord! our neighbourhood, give us strength to do more good.
Lord, we pray that all may see, paths O Lord, that lead to Thee.
Lord, we pray that all may see, paths O Lord, that lead to Thee.

Bless our country that it might, ever stand for truth and right,
This great land from shore to shore, needs to love Thee more and more.
Many tongues the people speak, yet good lives are what all seek,
Lord, we pray that we may be, Always true in love for Thee.
Bless our leaders give them grace, that with fairness they may face
All the problems of each day, and let them know the kindly way.
Lord, our thanks to Thee we give, for this land in which we live,
Help us keep it strong and free, closer, closer God to Thee
Held us keep it strong and free, closer, closer God to Thee.

Father for the world we pray, and the rulers that hold sway.
Many countries torn with strife need to know a happy life.
For each one in need we pray, may all learn a better way.
May all learn to on Thee call. Thou hast hope and love for all.
Women bless in every land, help them Lord to take a stand,
Stand up tall for truth and right and may they always see the light.
Aid in lives that have such care, let all know that each must share,
Lord a brighter day we'll see, when all know a love for Thee
Lord a brighter day we'll see, when all know a love for Thee.