

LINDALA

Kauno Lindala and Hilma Lievonen
(from Hilma Lindala, February, 1974. R.S.)

In 1914, Kauno Lindala and Hilma Lievonen were married. They settled on Lot 6 (south half) Concession V, which included land on both sides of the Vermilion River. At this time, Hilma's widowed mother was living on neighbouring land.

They had three children: Fred, Toivo or Toby, and Laila.

They sold the parcel of land across the river from the house to Wentala.

They turned the farm over to Toivo in 1946 and moved to Sudbury. Kauno died in 1949 and was buried in Sudbury.
