

PORT CARLING CURLERS: This picture was taken about 1926, when the Port Carling Curling Association was organized, succeeding an earlier curling club. The above men were active in establishing curling on a firmer basis at that time, and were, left to right: Ernest Duke, Claude Duke, Harry Penson and John Wallace.

DRAMATICS IN 1910: at Port Carling on February 4th, 1910, a play "Sprinsters' Convention" was performed in a newly built town hall. This hall was the beginning of the present Memorial Community Centre, which has undergone many alterations over the years. The picture above was contributed to the Port Carling W.I. Tweedsmuir History by Mrs. A. Duke. Left to right in the front row: Mrs. Alf Croucher, Miss Maude Eveleigh, Miss Fisher, Miss Amy Arksey, Mrs. Wilcox, Miss Birdie Arksey. In the second row, the second from the left was Nellie Harris and next Mrs. Mawhinney. In the back row: Mrs. George Sutton, Mrs. T. Croucher, Mrs. William Killen, Miss Ethel Stubbs, Mrs. John Wallace.
