

OAK CREST: We regret to say that when the above picture of Oak Crest, Joseph street, Port Carling, appeared in The Herald-Gazette two weeks ago it was, through misunderstanding of our notes, identified as Havington. Oak Crest is nowadays known as Bartwood Manor. This popular small resort was built by R. G. Penson. The picture appears to show the roadway in front of the property much higher than it is today.

1977

Will Operate Club at Port

1961
The former 21 Club building on the Port Carling waterfront has been taken over and will be operated for the summer by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nesbitt, of Galt. The business will be called "Nesbitt's Dine and Dance." It is intended to provide full restaurant service and nightly dancing.