

Capt. and Mrs. Henry Wallace to Mark Diamond Wedding

Their many friends throughout Muskoka will rejoice with Captain and Mrs. Henry Wallace and their family in the celebration of the Diamond Wedding anniversary of this fine Muskoka couple, next Monday, November 20th.

Captain and Mrs. Wallace were married in Bracebridge, by Father Collins. Mrs. Wallace was formerly Miss Mary Knight, of Brackenrig. They made their home throughout the years at Minett, but a short time ago moved to The Pines. It is there that they are to celebrate, next Monday.

Both are well and are enjoying life at their new residence, although Captain Wallace during the past year has lost his eyesight. He still greatly enjoys radio programs, particularly the hockey matches, and finds much pleasure in chatting with friends. Mrs. Wallace has been obliged to move about by wheel-chair since an accident of a few years ago, but is most cheerful and interested in her many friends. Among other residents at The Pines are her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knight.

The Herald-Gazette sends best wishes to Captain and Mrs. Wallace and their family for every happiness at the time of the celebration next Monday, and for the years ahead.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pain, Minett, celebrated their Golden Wedding.

On the occasion of their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Pain were "At Home" to their friends at Paynton House, Lake Rosseau, on Saturday afternoon, June 3rd. Although their actual marriage date is June 6th, the reception was arranged for a few days earlier for the convenience of members of the family living elsewhere.

Robert Dickson Pain and Marie McNaughton were married in Bracebridge and lived in Callander for a few years prior to returning to Muskoka, where they have resided ever since. Following in their parents' footsteps they realized the possibilities of the tourist industry, and made it their life's work, retiring this year when their sons, John and Archie, acquired the Business. Another son, Robert, lives at Minett and a daughter, Murich, (Mrs. Tom Russell) lives in Oshawa.

For the memorial event, the large reception room presented a symphony of colour. A basket of fifty golden roses centered the tea table and gift bouquets of yellow tulips, daffodils, mums, lily of the valley, and potted plants were attractively arranged throughout the rooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Pain were assisted in receiving the guests by all members of the family, with the exception of Mrs. John Pain, who was unavoidably absent, and five of their nine granddaughters, Nancy, Susan and Anne Marie Pain and Margaret and Jean Russell served refreshments. Not to be outclassed, three younger grandchildren, Janet, Peggy and Debbie Pain, passed candies.

Pouring tea were Mrs. Alen Gonneau and Mrs. Reg. Gonneau, of Minett, and Mrs. W. E. Massey and Mrs. John Cope, of Port Carling.

The bride and groom of fifty years cut the wedding cake, which was flanked on either side by glittering candelabra, together, and many bulbs flashed during the procedure. Among the guests, who came from Oshawa, Toronto, Bracebridge, Port Sandfield, Port Carling and the surrounding Community to offer felicitations were a neighbor of more than 60 years; also Mr. Robert Boyer, M.P.P. and Mrs. Boyer, Mr. Boyer presented Mr. and Mrs. Pain with a framed certificate of congratulations from the Province of Ontario. Numerous cards, letters, telegrams and gifts were also received by Mr. and Mrs. Pain, who we hope will enjoy many more years of happy and peaceful retirement.

Silver Wedding

A happy event took place in Brackenrig on Saturday, September 27th, when neighbours from Brackenrig and Port Carling called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Wefers, during the afternoon and evening, to offer their congratulations and best wishes. Mr. & Mrs. Wefers, their daughter, Berti, and son-in-law, Arthur Thiel, of Belleville, and Miss Marianne Wefers, of Brackenrig, received the guests. The house was tastefully decorated for the occasion, the dining room table most attractive with flowers, tapers in silver holders and a beautiful wedding cake made by Mrs. Harry Knight. The guests admired the many gifts and cards sent to the happy couple. Among these was a pair of silver candlesticks and a silver tray sent with the best wishes of the Brackenrig neighbours. Mrs. Harold Foulkes and Mrs. Harry Knight served delicious refreshments as Mr. and Mrs. Wefers visited with their callers.

Mr. and Mrs. Wefers (nee Miss Ann Dohmen) were married in M'Gladbach, Germany, on September 19th, 1936, and came to Canada with their daughters, Berti and Marianne, in November of 1956. In June, 1959, Mr. and Mrs. Wefers and Miss Marianne came to make their home in Brackenrig on the former property of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Davidson.

On Sunday the Wefers were pleased to welcome a number of friends from Toronto who had come to bring their best wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Amey, Port Carling, Celebrate Diamond Wedding

Married in St. John's Church, Chelsea, County of London, England, on August 4th, 1900, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Amey, of Port Carling, celebrated their 60th Wedding Anniversary last Thursday afternoon quietly at their home in Port Carling, where they have resided since coming to Canada in 1911.

Although there was no formal announcement, many friends called during the afternoon and evening to felicitate them on the happy occasion. Numerous letters, cards, baskets of flowers and fruit and other gifts were viewed and admired by the visitors, who stopped for a friendly chat partaking of a cup of tea and a piece of wedding cake.

Among the congratulatory messages received was a cablegram from Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and telegrams from Prime Minister Diefenbaker, Premier Leslie Frost, Gordon Aiken, M.P., Archbishop Wright, and Robert Boyer, M.P.P., who personally presented a framed certificate from the Province of Ontario.

As a prelude to the memorable event, Mr. and Mrs. George Temple were their hosts to a cruise on the Georgian Bay. In the evening Mr. and Mrs. Amey were entertained at a family dinner at Bartwood Manor.

Their friends wish them many more years of good health and happiness.
