

Eleanor Kelly

A freak traffic accident during a severe summer storm claimed the life of Eleanor Kelly on June 19, 1986. Eleanor Marie was born on August 18, 1966 in Port Perry, the second of four daughters of Gerald and Joyce (Graham) Kelly of Blackstock. She was the granddaughter of William and Edna Kelly, Bobcaygeon and the late Courtney and Florence Graham of Blackstock.

Eleanor graduated from Cartwright Central Public School and Cartwright High School as an Ontario Scholar. She had completed her second year of Nursing Science at Queen's University. As President-elect of the Nursing Science Society, Eleanor was held in high esteem by her classmates and members of the faculty.

Eleanor was a member of the Duke of Edinburgh Gold Society having been presented with its highest award by Prince Philip himself. She held Provincial Honours in 4-H and was a leader of Blackstock Ranger Group. Eleanor was an avid camper and enthusiastic member of the Durham East Junior Farmers. Eleanor was spending her second summer as a nurse's aid at the Port Perry Community Nursing Home where she had made many friends among both staff and residents. She was an active member of the Blackstock United Church.

Left to realize the great loss in addition to her parents and grandparents are her three sisters, Elizabeth, Elaine and Esther, all at home. Many relatives and friends will remember her outgoing and bubbly personality. Many floral tributes and a huge number of memorial gifts to Blackstock United Church and other charities attested to her widespread influence.

The memorial service at Blackstock United Church was conducted by her minister, Rev. Dale Davis assisted by former minister and close family friend, Rev. Victor Parsons. Pallbearers were cousins Rick Staples and Fred Slemmon and friends Dwayne Bryant, Ralph DeJong, Robert Green and Brian VanCamp.

Interment was at the family plot at Verulam Cemetery, Bobcaygeon.

ROBERTSON - In loving memory of Mrs. Corrie Robertson (nee Maude Simpson) who deceased August 25, 1944, and is sadly missed by her daughter Helen Carmichael.

When you left you did not know
The grandchildren Pat and Debbie
The great grandchildren
Dave and Jimmy McCarthy
Christa and Angela Jamieson
But we hope you've gone to better plains
So we can interchange
Do you help to intercede
While we learn down here our deeds?
Remember dear, your waves goodbye
As you saw me off to try
All the things from life from home
Always there to greet me back
Mother's smile was right on track.

Accident claims Blackstock girl

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Blackstock United Church for 19 year old Eleanor Marie Kelly, who died early Thursday evening in a car accident on Regional Road 57, south of Caesarea.

Her 20 year old sister Elizabeth, a passenger in the car, remains in Oshawa Hospital where she is being treated for arm injuries.

Durham Police say the single car accident occurred about 7:30 p.m. in a heavy rainstorm that made road conditions slippery at the time. The girls were returning to their home in Blackstock after collecting census forms in the Caesarea area.

According to police, the car was travelling slowly about 100 metres north of Concession Six, when it went out of control and flipped over. The accident took place within several hundred metres of the scene of a second fatality early Saturday morning that took the life of a 26 year old Uxbridge area man.

Eleanor was a popular and well-liked teenager, who was involved in numerous community activities in the Blackstock area. A graduate of Cartwright High School, she had completed her second year of nursing studies at Queens University in Kingston.

She is survived by her father Gerald, her mother Joyce, who is a trustee for Scugog with the Durham Board of Education and a long-time contributor of Cartwright area news to the Port Perry Star, her sister Elizabeth and two younger sisters Elaine and Esther.

Interment was at the Verulam Cemetery, Bobcaygeon. The family has asked that memorial donations may be made to the Blackstock United Church.
