Mary E. Moore, Larry J. Ashton Wed In Blackstock United Church

Baskets of white and pink gladioli formed the setting for the marriage of Mary Evelyn Moore and Larry John Ashton.

Miss Elizabeth Hayes, of Columbus provided the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. David Weldon of Oshawa, who sang: The Lord's Prayer and My Pledge to Thee. The Rev. Claude Gilbert of Scugog Island officiated in Blackstock United Church on the Seventeenth of August at 2:30 o'clock. 1963

Evelyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen (Sandy) Moore and Larry is the son of Mrs. Ashton and the late Mr. Bruce Ashton.

The bride given in marriage by her father wore a traditional gown of peau-de-faille. The fitted bodice with its corded waist and lily-point sleeves had a bateau neckline embossed with crescents of guipure lace. The full belle-shaped skirt was heavily appliqued with panels of guipure lace. From the lowered bustle back two large petal-ed roses caught the beginning of a flowing capel train.

A petal rose and leaves of the same material caught a bouffant veil of silk illusion.

Evelyn carried a white bible with an orchid, stephanotis and carnation arrangement.

The Bride was attended by her sister Miss Louise Moore as maid of honour; Miss Doris Ashton and Mrs. Robert Kellar as bridesmaids; Miss Susan Slute and Miss Janet Bragg as flower girls.

They were gowned alike in white embroidered nylon street length dresses, with pink satin waistline insets, bows and flowers. Their headdresses were the same pink satin pillbox type hats, trimmed with a flat cabbage rose and circular veils. The attendants carried nosegay bouquets of pink roses, carnation and gladioli florets with po-do-carpus leaves.

Mr. Lloyd Wilson was best man and the ushers were Mr. Robert Kellar and Mr. Ernest Wotten.

For the reception, at the Flying Dutchman Motor Hotel of Bowmanville, the bride's mother received wearing a dress of blue organza with white beading at the neckline. She wore white accessories and a pink rose and carnation corsage. Mrs. Ashton assisted, wearing a draped dress of gray and pink floral silk, with white accessories and a white carnation and pink rose corsage.

For the honeymoon to Lake Placid the bride chose a yellow linen sheath with ¾ length matching coat, yellow hat and white accessories, white stephanotis and carnation corsage complimented her ensemble.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Ashton are residing in Regency Towers, 349 Marland Ave., Oshawa, Ontario.
