LISHMAN, Alan - Born in Cullercoats, England, one of ten children of Joseph and Mary (Ayton) Lishman. In his early years he managed several trading posts in Nigeria for the United West Africa Company. In 1933, while on leave from Africa, he met and married Myra Cronkrite from Pickering, Ontario, and in 1938 the couple purchased the family farm and began dairy farming in Pickering. They were one of the first in Canada to employ the milking parlour system. During the 1950s Alan was active in the public school board, and with the Toronto Milk Producers and was instrumental in starting a farmer run milk transport and a surplus milk processing plant in Weston. In 1987 he and Myra moved to Sebringville, Ontario, having spent the winters at their Florida home. Myra predeceased him in 1989 in her 93rd year. Alan is survived by one sister Josephine Stone of Cambridge, England; two daughters Elaine Hawkins of Toronto, Louise McColl of Stratford; one son William A. Lishman of Blackstock; six grandchildren: Alicia Hawkins, Zilla Parker, Gwyneth Hawkins, Aaron, Geordie and Carmen Lishman.
