George Albert Kilpatrick

George Albert Kilpatrick passed away at the Port Perry Nursing Home on Nov. 19, 1997. The only son of the late Elizabeth (Gillies) and James Robert L. Kilpatrick, George was born in Kindersley, Saskatchewan on June 26, 1920.

At the age of five, George and his family moved to Westminster and then Burnaby British Columbia. Here he attended public school and the Trapp Technical High School.

In 1937 his father inherited the Kilpatrick family farm in Reach Township, Port Perry. Mr. Kilpatrick moved here first and George and his mother arrived later the same year by train from B.C. to take up farming.

George was secretary-treasurer for SS #3 Reach (Cedar Creek School) from 1945 until 1951. In 1945 he was instrumental in having hydro installed in the school.

George was an active member of the Conservative Party and many debates were enjoyed by he and his friends and neighbors. He always helped at all the elections, whether local, provincial or federal.

For many years up until 1982, George wrote the Cedar Creek news for the Oshawa Times and The Port Perry Star. He could always be relied upon to provide valuable family and local history information to anyone whom asked.

George's father passed away on Nov. 23, 1946 and his mother on Nov. 11, 1959. He continued to farm until 1982 when he moved to the Kellett St. Seniors Apartments, Port Perry. While here he performed the caretaking duties. George is survived by cousins Marie Henstock, Oshawa, Dorothy Clark, Toronto, Eleanor Palmer, Boston, Laura Porter, New York, and families. Mary Bancroft and family, Milverton, Steve Hales and family, B.C. (only known relatives), close friends, Bill Fong, Whitby, Daniel Lee, Vancouver, Rick, Elaine, Richard and Shawn Larocque, Port Perry and many other friends.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Sandy Beaton at Wagg Funeral Home, Port Perry on November 22, 1997. Interment followed in the family plot, Pine Grove Cemetery, Prince Albert, Ontario.

Pallbearers were Richard, Shawn and Rick Larocque, Bastian Benschop, John Phillips and Manson Woods. Music was provided by Audrey Beauchamp.

The family of the late Michael Diamond would like to express their thanks to relatives, friends, neighbours and classmates for flowers, cards, memorial donations, food and letters. Special thanks to John Trachsler for being there for us. Thanks to Neil Grandy, Gord Bray, Roy Graham, Uncle Frank, brothers Bill, Hugh and Pat for tending to the cattle. Thank you to the 911 operator, ambulance, firemen, Lakeridge Health Corp., Port Perry, Dr. Mercer, nurses and also to Dr. W. Cohoon and Dr. Pat Morra for their care over the past four years. Special thanks to our daughter Michelle for her knowledge in C.P.R., you were very brave and made me proud, both you and Lee. Thanks to Rev. Glen Eagle of Myrtle United Church for your support and just for being you, also to my Myrtle United Church co-workers, the lunch was terrific. Thank you to Richard B. Bames of Memorial Chapel, Brooklin, and Patty Scott for the service you provided, but most of all, thanks for just being you. Rick, you made the most trying time of life easier to deal with. Thanks to Mike's Groveside Cemetery co-workers, John, J.T., Neil and Maureen. You all would have made Mike proud, you hung in there and did your job. I know it was as hard for you as for me.

With heartfelt thanks Judy, Michelle and Lee "May he rest where there are lots of green fields."
