

Earl Martyn, former farmer

W. EARL MARTYN
JULY 3/15 to JUNE 14/90

Earl was the son of William and Henrietta Martyn. He farmed on the family farm on the 4th Concession of Reach Township until 1977. He was a dairy farmer, with a herd of purebred Holstein cows. In 1939, he married Jean Parker (Anderson), who was killed suddenly in a car accident in 1965. They had two children, Marion (Mrs. John Lake of Oakwood), and Bruce, of Etobicoke. In 1970, he married Jean P. Clark.

He was always deeply interested in the affairs of his community, and was a member of Prince Albert Church, serving as Elder, Steward, and Sunday School Superintendent. He served on Reach Township Council as Councillor, Deputy-Reeve and Reeve, and School Trustee. Also, he was a devoted member of the Oddfellows Lodge (Warriner Branch) for forty-seven years.

After his retirement from farming, he became a volunteer driver for Community Care and Meals-on-Wheels. He especially enjoyed his years as a school bus driver, and was loved and respected by his young passengers. Earl also worked for the Lung Association and was a Big Brother for several years.

In 1984, he was awarded a Bicentennial medal by the Province of Ontario for his outstanding work as a volunteer.

After a lengthy illness, he passed away in Oshawa General Hospital on June 14, 1990. The funeral service was held in Prince Albert United Church on June 18, with Rev. Bob LePage and Rev. Don Tansley officiating. Ivan Parkinson read the 23rd Psalm, and nephew Ronald Wanamaker talked about his memories of Uncle Earl. Carol Nokes, his great-niece, sang two beautiful solos. As well, the Prince Albert United Church choir sang a fitting anthem, under the direction of Mrs. Eva Hunter. Pallbearers were nephews, Ronald, Neil and Bill Wanamaker, Denny and Jim Martyn, and Jim Nokes. Honourary pallbearers were Mac and Fred Christie, Jim Martin, Fred Olsen, Lloyd and Grant Hunter, and Les Beacock. (Sandy Moore was absent through illness).

Interment was in Pine Grove Cemetery.

THANK YOU
The kindness and concern of hundreds of friends, relatives and co-workers have overwhelmed our family at the time of Robert's death. We are so fortunate to live in such a loving community with caring people. The donations, beautiful flowers, food and special cards along with the kind and comforting words have given us so much strength and courage enabling us to celebrate Robert's life as well as to mourn his death.

Thank you to Dr. Dan Obedkoff and your colleagues for such great care, and to all the special people at Port Perry Hospital; doctors, nurses, administration, dietary and cleaning staff, along with all the volunteers who helped make our time there so comfortable.

Reverend Bob LePage, your support and friendship have been immeasurable. Thank you to the ladies of the Port Perry United Church UCW for serving such a large crowd of people and to the staff of Low and Low for your kindness.

Robert's battle is finally over and now he is so peaceful in God's care. May God bless all of you.

Sincerely,
The Family of Robert Burnett
