

OBITUARIES

MRS. HAROLD SWAIN

Frances Josephine Swain age 54, a well known and highly respected resident of Cartwright passed away quite suddenly in Oshawa General Hospital April 16, 1966.

A daughter of Mrs. L. E. Mountjoy and the late Mr. L. E. Mountjoy, Frances was born near Blackstock, received her education in Blackstock Public and High Schools. When united in marriage with Harold Swain February 14, 1936 she just moved a mile and together they operated his farm, where they still resided. In earlier years she was active in young peoples work, taught young girl's class in Sunday School, a real worker in the W.A., Secretary of Women's Institute and a kind loving helpmate, mother and friend of all who knew her. The last few years, due to health conditions she had to drop many activities in church and community.

Surviving are her husband, Harold, two sons Jack of Oshawa and Jim and daughter Helen at home; her mother Mrs. L. Mountjoy, Oshawa; Brother Lawrence Mountjoy, Warkworth Sister (Grace) Mrs. Wm. Hallett, Oshawa.

The funeral service was held April 19th at the McDermott-Panabaker Chapel, Port Perry and was conducted by her pastor Rev. Philip Romeril, assisted by Rev. Milton Sanderson of Toronto. Interment was in Union Cemetery Cadmus.

Pall bearers, all nephews—Douglas and Robert Mountjoy; Vernon McGill; Dr. Harry Sanderson; Bill Marlow and Don Swain.

Among the many floral tributes which spoke of the high esteem in which deceased was held were tokens from General Motors of Canada Ltd., General Motors Purchasing and Payroll Departments.

MOON, Violet May at the Oshawa General Hospital on Thursday, January 30, 1992. Violet May Stanton, in her 108th year. Beloved wife of the late Roy C. Moon. Dear mother of Dorothy and her husband Jack Bridger of Apsley, and Bill and his wife Charlotte Moon of Havelock. Step-mother of Fern Tobin of Seagrave. Predeceased by two sisters and six brothers. Also survived by eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. Rested at the Armstrong Funeral Home, 124 King St. E., Oshawa. Funeral service was held in the chapel Monday, February 3 at 1:30 p.m. Spring interment at Pine Grove Cemetery. Memorial donations to St. Stephen's United Church or the charity of your choice would be appreciated.

Sorry to learn of the passing of Cartwright native Norman Mahaffy in Ottawa a couple of weeks ago from a massive heart attack. Without a doubt the tragic murder of his granddaughter Leslie Mahaffy last fall in the Welland area played a part in the deterioration of Norman's health. Norm was raised at Purple Hill where he attended school and worked until he moved to Ottawa. Sympathy to members of the Mahaffy family.
