

Members of the local legions participated in the remembrance Day services held in Sunderland on Wednesday.

Several children were among the spectators at the Remembrance Day services in Sunderland. These Brownies braved the cold to pay their respects.
-Laurel Lahti photo