

Locked and empty: The Sunnydale home in Sunderland once employed 60 people and was home to 77 residents. On June 30, Violet St. John, above, locked the doors on the building for the last time.

Post VISION photo/Laurel J. Campbell