

pliances they have, she replied, "Well I don't know how I did it! We had a big house but I never had a hired girl. I also used to make my own buns and bread. Way back, Mom used to make all of our bread; and, it was good right down to the last crust."

She is really enjoying living in Bon-Air.

"It's a wonderful place to be if you can't look after yourself at home. It's like a home away from home. It's kept so fresh and clean here. We are well fed and well cared for in a very friendly way. It's pleasant here and there is no discord among the staff. It's a wonderful living environment. They also do nice things for us like taking us on trips that don't cost much," she concluded.

Ruby Miller is enjoying her life at Bon-Air Nursing Home in Cannington. She comments on the wonderful, friendly staff.
