

Legion reunion is the last one

The Third Medium Regiment Platoon of the R.C.A.S.C. held what is to be their last reunion this past weekend.

For the last six years, just under one quarter of the 105 members of the unit have met once a year in Sunderland. While the men visited in Sunderland, their wives would head off on a bus trip. This year the ladies enjoyed a shopping trip in Lindsay.

These reunions first began in 1986, when two Sunderland residents took the initiative to locate the former unit members. They put an invitation in the Royal Canadian Legion news bulletin to announce that first reunion. Twenty-three members came. But, as the years passed, fewer and fewer of them were able to attend for various reasons, and so a decision was made that this would be the last reunion.

The highlight of the weekend was a supper held in the Sunderland Legion on the evening of Sept. 5.

The Third Medium Regiment Platoon of the R.C.A.S.C. met for what was to be their farewell reunion supper at the Sunderland Legion on Sat., Sept. 7.
Louise Middleton photo