

Candlelight Service

Wilf Alyward and Anne Molenaar were united in marriage in December at Pinedale Church during a beautiful candlelight service. The couple live in St. Anthony, Newfoundland.

Pinedale United Church was the scene on December 5, 1981 of the wedding of Anne Joanne Molenaar, daughter of Teunis and Alice Molenaar, R.R. 4, Sunderland and Mr. Wilf Alyward of St. Anthony, Newfoundland. Rev. A. Rodgers and Rev. J. Roundell officiated at the candlelight ceremony.

Debbie Donneral of the Brock II Club also received her County Honours with this unit. Due to a previous commitment, she attended the Ontario South 4-H Achievement Night for her presentation.

Colin McMillan, Cannington, in his 99th year, was a very special visitor who attended the 136th Anniversary of St. Andrew's Church. He saw the church being built and was present when the cornerstone was laid.

Rev. Casey McKibbin and Allan Cameron are chatting over old times at the social hour following the 136th Anniversary celebrations at St. Andrews United Church.

Christie Doble, Cannington, Brooke Durward, Brock II, and Erica Lawrenson, Brock III received their County Honours at the 4-H Achievement Night held recently in Sunderland.
