

Wednesday, June 23, 1982

SUNDERLAND LION PRESIDENT Dale St. John makes a presentation to Lion Lloyd Bagshaw at the Sunderland Lions Ladies' Night last Saturday in the Sunderland community centre. Looking on are his wife, Beatrice and Incoming Lion President Tom Allison. The plaque was presented to Lloyd by the Lions "in sincere appreciation and recognition of distinguished service, loyalty and devotion to the community of Sunderland by the Sunderland Lions Club, June 19, 1982".

Stevenson addresses W.I.

MPP ROSS STEVENSON accepts this floral gift from Mrs. Croxall of the Bethesda-Reach W.I. Stevenson had been the guest speaker at the 72nd Annual Meeting of the Ontario North District Women's Institute. It was held in the Sunderland Town Hall all day, Wednesday, May 19. The theme was: "The health of a nation can be as good as its watersupply". Included among the groups attending were Beaverton, Gamebridge, Sunderland, Goodwood, Uxbridge, Sandford and Quaker Hill.

The Express, Gleaner, Sun, Wed., June 23, 1982

MRS. JOYCE McMULLEN, OF Sunderland won first prize at the Sunderland Fall Fair last year with her quilt.