

Good weather for Decoration Day

Decoration Day

KEN STEVENSON gives a short speech to the crowd at the annual decoration day for the St. John Cemetery on Reg. Rd. 23 just south of the turnoff to Sunderland. Next to him is Reverend Don Jones of the Sunderland United Church. This cemetery is more than 200 years old and has many gravestones marked by the family names of "St. John, Shier, Rynard, and Baker".

LORI ANNE SHIER, 2½, catches 40 winks, during the annual decoration day at the St. John Cemetery outside Sunderland. Her grandmother, Eileen Shier, said Lori Anne was all tuckered out because she'd been to two church services that day.
