

St. Mary's Anglican Church of Sunderland is raffeling off this quilt to raise money for a new Sunday School room. Jessie Allin, above, organized the quilt, while women in the area made it. Tickets are three for a dollar and are available at Pat's Sunderland Bakery.

The Southern Development in Sunderland has started building houses, one is already partly built.