

WI names officers

The Sydenham Women's Institute announced its new officers for 1976-77: Mrs. Willard Henry, past president; Mrs. James Thomas, president; Mrs. Ronald Roberts, vice-president; Mrs. Ronald Eaton, secretary; Mrs. Douglas Ohlman, treasurer; Mrs. Craig Coupland, public relations officer; Mrs. Willard Henry and Mrs. Melville Tousignant, district directors. Mrs. David Atherton, Mrs. Barry Thomas, Mrs. Wayne Peters, Mrs. Douglas Ohlman and Mrs. Warren Gossage, local directors. Mrs. Clarence Kemp, Mrs. Eric Forde, Mrs. Harry Burnett, Mrs. Austin Fox and Mrs. George Tousignant, refreshment committee.

Convenors of standing committees: Mrs. David Atherton; Agriculture and Canadian industries, Mrs. Grace Kellar; citizenship and world affairs, Mrs. George Spafford; education and cultural activities, Mrs. Harold Millar; family and consumer affairs, Mrs. David Thomas; resolutions, Mrs. Ronald Roberts; Tweedsmuir history curator, Mrs. Craig Coupland; flower convenor, Mrs. Alwyn Campbell, pianist.

The retiring president, Mrs. Willard Henry was presented with a corsage and WI silver spoon as was Mrs. Cameron Kenny on the occasion of her moving to Inuvik, Northwest Territories, to reside for the next two years.

WI elects executive

SYDENHAM — Sydenham Women's Institute's annual meeting was preceded by a banquet at Aunt Lucy's Restaurant in Kingston with an excellent attendance.

Officers elected for the 1973-74 term were: Mrs. James Thomas, honorary president; Mrs. Melville Tousignant, president; Mrs. Willard Henry, first vice-president, Mrs. James Thomas, second vice-president; Mrs. Gary Davison, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. James Thomas, district director; Mrs. Craig Coupland, public relations director. Local directors — Mrs. Lloyd Maybee, Mrs. Eric Forde, Mrs. George Tousignant, Mrs. W. Kenny, Mrs. Willard Henry.

Convenors of standing committees are: Mrs. Garnel Lewis, Agriculture and Canadian Industries; Mrs. Clifford Kellar, Citizenship and World Affairs; Mrs. Gordon Lindsay, Education and Cultural Activities; Mrs. Harold Preslar, Family and Consumer Affairs; Mrs. William Scott, Resolutions; Mrs. Walter Pearce, Mrs. Craig Coupland, Flower Convenors; Miss Edith Truscott, curator of Tweedsmuir History.

