

lunch cloth and napkins set made by Mrs. Ray Kainulainen, of the Waters WIP left. The design on the white linen is a delicate interpretation of a clump of bulrushes. Mrs. Kainulainen also made hastinotes with the same design. Mrs. William Gagnon, third from left and Mrs. Dave Ritari, right, are also from Waters. Mrs. Ritari holds a pair of drapes stamped with an original design made from a piece of wood, with the natural grain showing in shades of green, bronze and orange. Miss Leslie was pleased with the array of articles, skirts, cushion covers, tablecloths and other items made by the women.

District Women Show Handicrafts Progress Spring 1962

atives of Sudbury Women's Institutes at Sudbury Public this week for a Summer — to show the re- program of block they have been en- this past season un- sponsorship of the department of Agri- id Home Economics. was held in Sudbury or the leaders from is branches of the Institute. Above, slie, of the depart- griculture, from T- ond from left, looks y at an attractive

ON WEDNESDAY
 on Finishes is the theme his year by the depart-of agriculture home s branch for a fall se-ning school for mem-
 the Sudbury District Institute. The work-l take place on Wed-
 from 10 a.m. until 4, at the department of re office, 172 Elm St.
 sessions, under the dif Frances Trenholm, of
 e. Marie, will continue
 s. Nov. 1. Miss Trenhe department's home representative in this
 s. Harry Williams, of load, district publicity a for the WIO, said to-two leaders from each l branches of the instine district are expected
 l. Later, these leaders urn instruct the mem-heir respective branch-31 & Nov. 1-1962

Representatives of Sudbury district Women's Institute groups today completed a two-day fall senior training school sponsored by the home economics branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture. The final workshop session was held this afternoon in the courthouse board room on Elm St. W., conducted by Frances Lampman, of the home economics service, Toronto. Theme of the workshop was, Focus on Finishes, which Capreol, seated, demonstrate her sewing ability. Standing from left, are Mrs. Howard Bennison, of Naughton; Mrs. R. Binnersley, of Garson; Mrs. D. Ritari, of Water township; Mrs. J. Lee, of Skead Rd., and Frances Lampman, instructress. Each of the five Sudbury district WI groups — Naughton, Garson, Waters township, Skead Rd. and Capreol were represented by two delegates, who will return to their respective