

District WI Board Plans June Conference

Directors of eight Sudbury district Women's Institute branches gathered Friday in the Nickel Range Hotel for the annual board meeting. Looktary Mrs. H. Williams of Skead Road, district president Mrs. H. Glynn, Waters township, and Mrs. J. Lee, sr., past-president of Skead Road ton, Skead Road, Mrs. F. O. England, Markstay, and Mrs. A. S. Hamilton, Norman township. Plans were completed for the general membership an-

The Women's Institute was organized primarily for women living in rural areas. Founder of the movement was Mrs. Adelaide Hoodless, of Stoney Creek, near Hamilton. Other district directors attending man, Garson, Mrs. P. Lemay, Azilda, Mrs. O. Svensk, Penage Road, and standing behind are Mrs. T. Lampi, Waters township, and Mrs. G. Gideon, Monetville. A bus trip to Stoney Creek was suggested