Waters Hotel Banquet

GUELPH CONVENTION . . .
Mrs. E. A. Rauhala, of Waters township, secretary of the Naughton Women's Institute, and Mrs. T. Tolmonen, secretary of Whitefish Women's Institute, are returning by car today from Guelph, where they attended a two-day convention for WI secretaries in Ontario. Mrs. J. van Beekhoff, of Holland, president of the Associated Country Women of the World, was main speaker at the conference.

Oct 6/61. WI Elects District Secretary

Presidents of 10 of the 11 Sudbury district branches of the Women's Institute attended a special meeting in the Nickel Range Hotel over the weekend to elect a district secretary. District president, Mrs. H. Lewis, of Garson, called the meeting to fill the vacancy created by the death this summer of Mrs. H. Williams, of Garson, who had been elected secretary of the annual spring meeting. Shown here, seated from left, are Mrs. E. Rauhala, of Waters township, district representative to the WI Ontario Federation, and Mrs. H. Lewis; standing behind are Mrs. J. H. Chivers, of Azilda, newly-elected secretary - treasurer, at left, and Mrs. V. Burton, of Skead Rd., first vice - president. Mrs. Burton was delegated to attend the area WI convention, Oct. 14 and 15, in Desbarats. The district convention will be held in Sudbury next spring.

Hold Area WI Convention Here

Plans to hold the Women's Institute area convention next Oct. 25 and 26 in Sudbury were made at a district meeting in Lively Mine - Mill Union Hall recently. During the election of officers for 1965 - 66, Mrs. H. Lewis, of Garson, was returned to office as president for a second term. Shown at the meeting from left are, Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. G. Cvitkovich, of Chelmsford, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. E. A. Rauhala, of Waters township, federation representative; Mrs. L. R. Trivers, of Thessalon, guest speaker; Mrs. J. H. Chivers, of Azilda, 1st vice - president; Mrs. H. Cooper, of Mindemoya, a provincial WI board member, and Mary Ellen Foote, of Sudbury, home economist with the agriculture department. Mrs. H. L. Ben-nison, of Naughton, was named 2nd vice - president. Hostess unit for the conference was Waters township. Three voting delegates from each of the 10 district units along with many other members, participated in the annual meeting. There was a large turnout.
