Lily Cook was 100

Obituary

The death of Lily Cook occurred on June 10, 1993, at North York Extendicare where she had spent the past four years. She was in her 101st year.

Mrs. Cook was born south of Zephyr in 1892, the second oldest child of Mr. and Mrs. John Meyers.

In 1930 she married William Cook and resided on the farm on the 6th of Scott Township until 1945 when they moved to Zephyr. She was a very active member of both Leaskdale and Zephyr Presbyterian churches, always willing to help women's organizations and Sunday School. Many of the students of Zephyr will remember her for the assistance she gave them when needed.

After her husband died in 1960, she continued to live in Zephyr until 1969 when she moved to Richmond Hill where she was active in the Richmond Hill W.M.S. and the Seniors' Club.

She is survived by son, John and his wife Mary and children and by stepdaughters Ruth Goldstone, Gwynneth Haynes and Audrey Carter. Her sister, Verna Tait, is the only survivor of a family of seven girls and four boys. A sister-in-law, Mrs. Jim Meyers (Susan), survives her.

The funeral service was held June 14 at the Marshall Funeral Home in Richmond Hill, conducted by the Presbyterian minister Rev. William Wallace. Pallbearers were Don Goldstone, Reg Carter, Horner Walker and Don Hewlett. Burial was at the Mount Pleasant Cemetery north of Zephyr. The Zephyr United Church women provided lunch following the burial service.
