

This Tweedsmuir History Book was started and compiled by Mrs. Wm. E. Richardson January 2, 1960. It was entered into the Tweedsmuir competition at Forrester's Falls May 26, 1964, the fifty - sixth District Annual.

Mrs. Leslie Davis of Eganville, had offered a prize and a book mark she had brought home from a tour of the Holy Land along with $ 5.00 for the best compiled History Book of new beginners.

There were five entered in the competition with Cobden's W.I. History Book being the winner.

Mrs. Davis then congratulated Mrs. Wm. Richardson and presented her with the money and the book mark which was to be put in the book for a keepsake and the money to go toward buying more material for our book.

In 1965 the Tweedsmuir History Book was entered into the competition again. This time at Micksburg May 19th District Annual.

This year being the winner again with a $ 10.00 gift of money to Mrs. Richardson to be used for further material for our book.
