Mrs. Alfred Watt once said, "So long as we have faith in our movement there is nothing to prevent our being the greatest spiritual and educational force in Canada". It has been proved through the years that members do have that faith. Regardless of name, location or language, organizations of country women have progressed along broad lines, through concentrating on the details of life that go to make happy homes, an educated and healthy community, an atmosphere of refinement and culture; and in spite of diversity of scenery and resources, the Federation — the Federated Women's Institutes of Canada — binds all together with unity of purpose and common ideals.
