

1963

GROUP OF 4-H GIRLS

The Golden Lake 4-H Homemaking Club recently held an informal tea at the home of their assistant leader, Mrs. Allen Pilatzke. This marked the end of eight meetings in which they learned how to conduct themselves in public, how to set a table and serve correctly, the art of flower arranging, making tasty sandwiches, entertaining and being a guest and making tea cakes.

The members' mothers and several W. I. members were the guests.

Tea was poured by Dornetta Pilatzke. Other "Tea Teens" members who served were: Jacqueline Lavigueur, Colleen Ruddy, Gail Thur, Wendy Lehman and Karen Kilby.

Mrs. E. Weckworth is the leader.

On display were their record books and reference files.

The Tea Teens. 4-H

1964

The 4-H Home Making Club. "What Shall I wear?"

"The Fashionettes" have now completed their spring project. Seven girls each made a blouse. Planned a costume chest, and kept a record book. After demonstrating at the W.I. meeting on May 5. These books will be sent to the Home Economist for judging for Achievement on May 16, 1964.

Leader, Mrs. Eric Weckworth and Mrs. Allen Pilatzkie

Girls taking part are,

Wendy Layman, - Karen Kilby, Miss <sup>Colleen</sup> Ruddy, Dornetta Pilatzkie, Jacqueline Lavigueur,

1964 - Fall class:-

In 1968 Karen Kilby completed 12 projects and received provincial honour certificate and pin. The 4-H girls presented her with a centennial plate and the W. I. presented a cup and saucer to her in recognition of the honor.

GOLDEN LAKE 4-H HOME-MAKING CLUB HOLDS FINAL MEETING

1967

The Golden Lake Ethnic-ettes, of the 4-H Homemaking Club, held their eighth and final meeting for the project "A World of Food in Canada", on Oct. 26th, at the home of the Club Leader, Mrs. Lorne Hildebrandt. It was in the form of a party with the club members' mothers and other girls attending and opened with the 4-H Pledge.

The Assistant Leader, Miss Karen Kilby, spoke on the exhibit "Early Canadian Kitchen Utensils" and the record books and recipe files were on display.

Contests were held with Mrs. Walter Kilby and Miss Julie Kaija being the winners. Each of the girls had prepared a dish of delectable food peculiar to one of the different ethnic groups of early Canadians and which they very capably served to the guests.

Achievement Day will be held on Nov. 18th at St. Andrew's Church Hall in Killaloe.