

from $1,000 gift to WI

"The WI links women of all races a modes of living," she said. "It is non-partisan an non-sectarian. This organization gives women the opportunities to become stronger citizens and leaders in their communities."

The new North Renfrew Women's Institute District executive is made up of: president Dwyla Pilgrim, past president Julie Thur, first vice-president Susan deHaan, second vice-president Margaret Ann Griffith, secretary and treasurer Peggy McLeod, newspaper liaison Elaine Hennessy, program coordinator Cathy Green, resolutions Christine Reaburn, Tweedsmuir curator Myrtle Bromley, Tweedsmuir committee Ruby Bulmer, auditors Alice Berger and Irene Stephens, and pianist Noreen Desjardins. Area delegates are Dwyla Pilgrim and Julie Thur, and alternates are Susan deHaan and Margaret Ann Griffith.

Julie Thur, left, outgoing president of the North Renfrew District Women's Institute, accepted a cheque for $1,000 from Dawnalda Sutherland, who made the presentation in honour of her mother, the late Hazel (Mrs. Leslie) Davis.

At the North Renfrew District of the Women's Institute's annual meeting, there was a special cake to commemorate 100 years of WIs in Ontario. Cutting the cake, from left, are: outgoing district president Julie Thur, incoming president Dwyla Pilgrim, and outgoing secretary-treasurer Bernice Thur.

NORTH RENFREW DISTRICT

WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

89TH

ANNUAL MEETING

AT

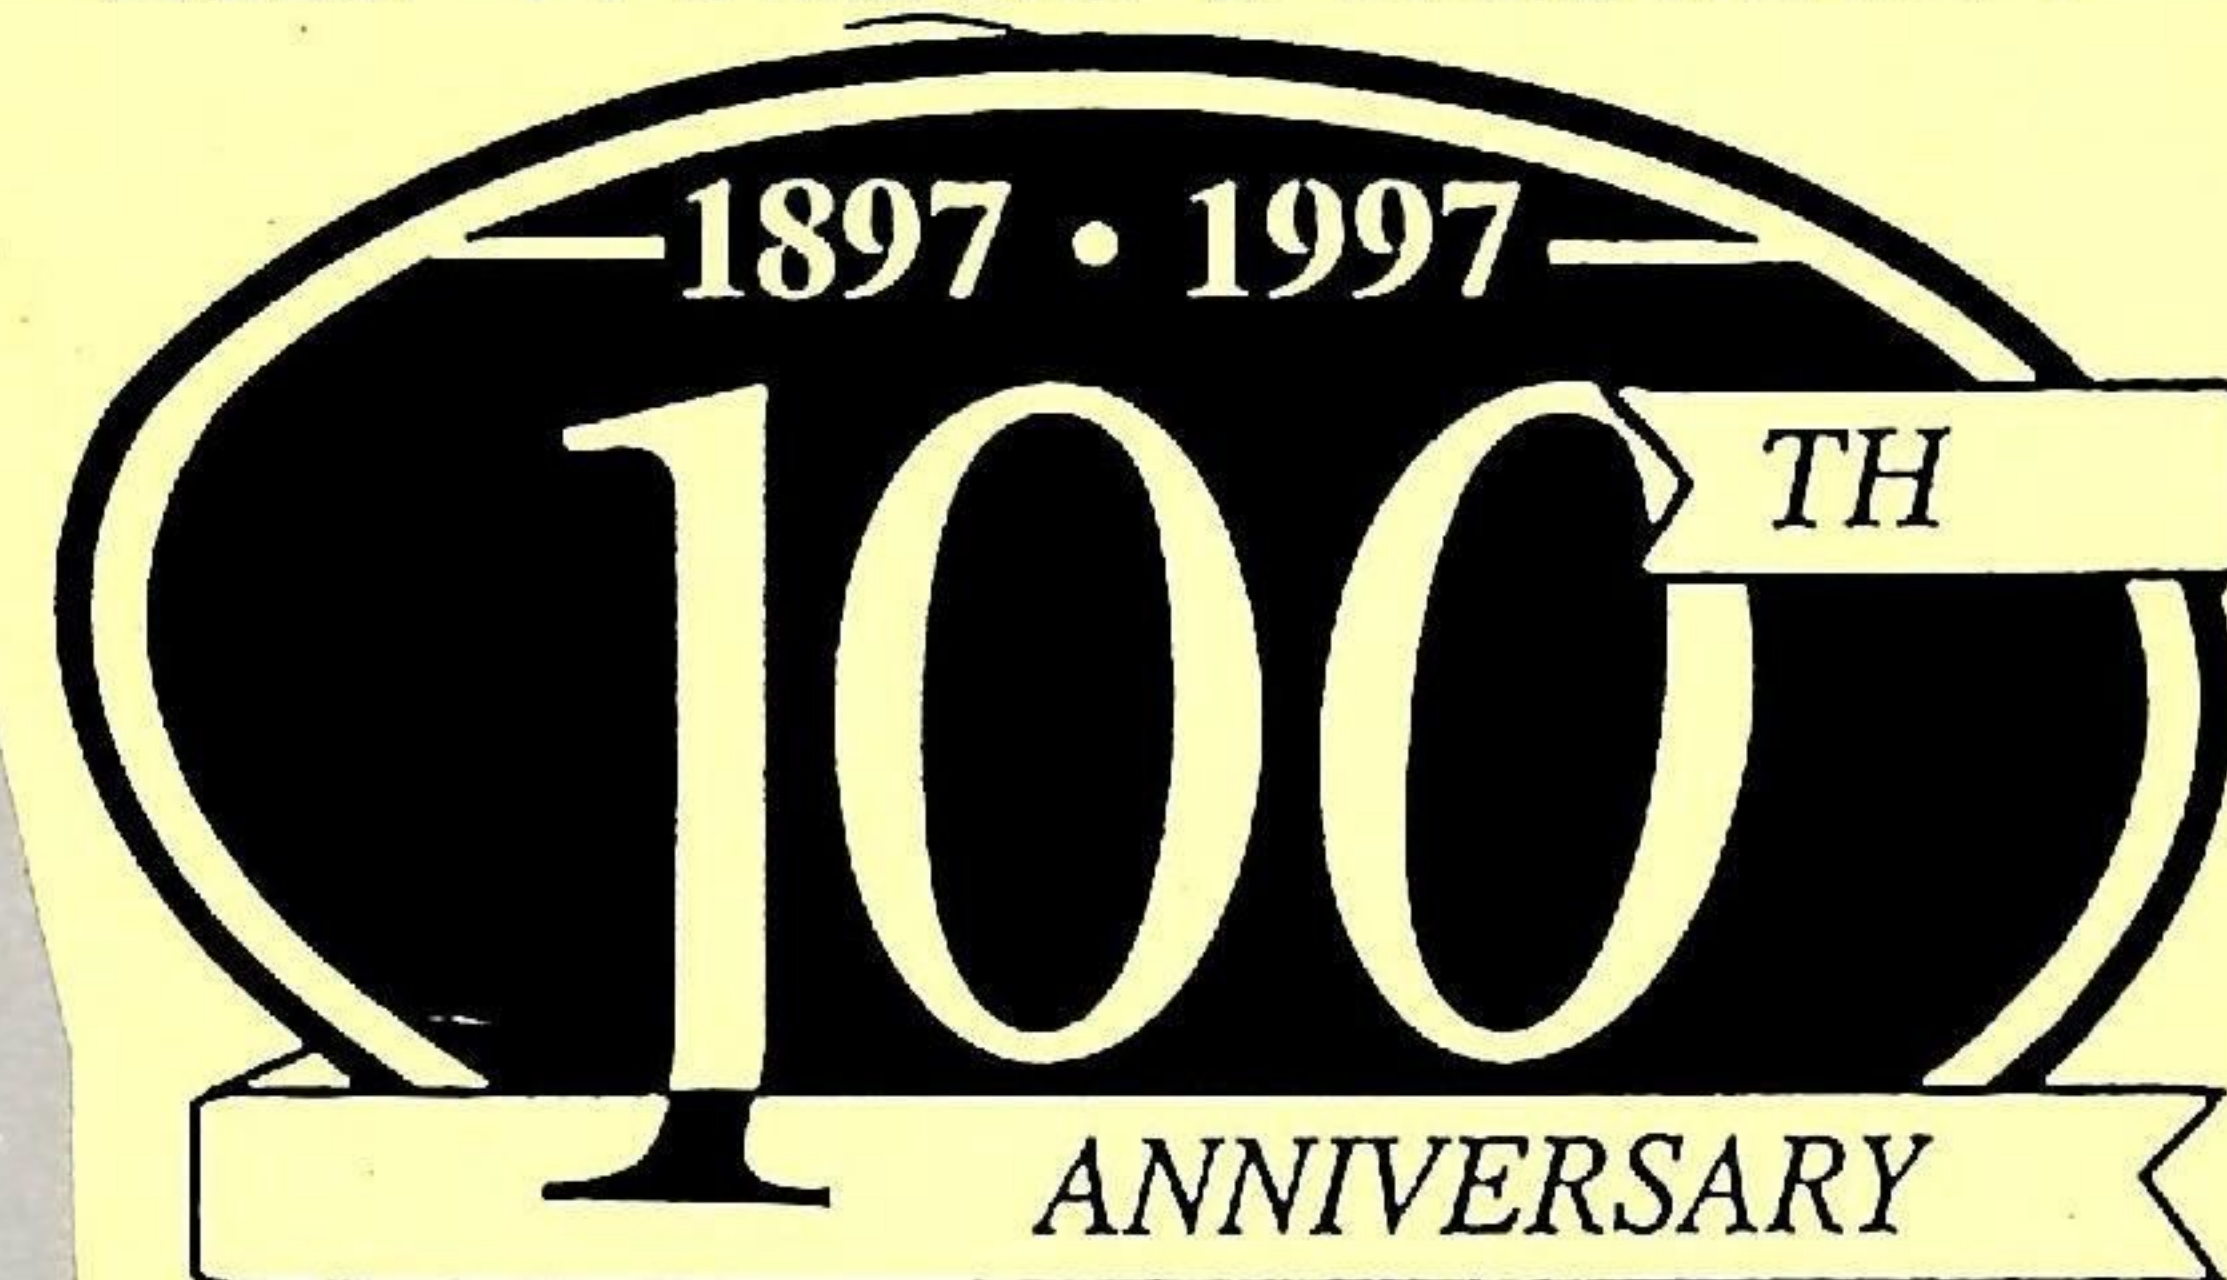

WESTMEATH HALL

WESTMEATH, ONTARIO

HOSTESS - WESTMEATH INSTITUTE

THURSDAY, MAY 15, 1997

The Women's Institute

For Home and Country