

This part was built in 1873. The room contains a horse hair settee, pump organ and a bay window overlooking the city of Stoney Creek.

Below: Life was centered around the kitchen. Furniture and floors were constructed from pine located on the property. The cast iron stove was coal burning and the room furnished by oil lamps.

