

Local 4-H'ers win awards

NOV. 14/84

A number of 4-H members from across the county and their leaders had their achievements during the year recognized at an achievement program at Opeongo High School November 2. Agriculture and horticulture clubs shared in the evening's festivities.

Among the local 4-H members presented with awards for being the most outstanding member of their 4-H club were J.T. Enright, Cobden Calf Club; David Stephen, Beachburg Community Club; Leanne Enright, Cobden Field Crop Club; Dianne Huckabone, Cobden Horse Club; Kevin Oattes, Forester's Falls Community Club; Carolyn Wren, North Renfrew Farm Safety Club; Juanita Behnke, Pembroke Calf Club; Heather Hamilton, Pembroke Horse Club; Julie White, Veterinary Club and Westmeath Community Club.

Receiving the award for the most deserving first year club member were: Kim Vandekemp, Beachburg Community Club; Susan Enright, Cobden Calf Club; Duane McLaughlin, Cobden Horse Club; Sheri Waite, Forester's Falls Community Club; Gordon Wren, North Renfrew Farm Safety Club; Wayne Doering, Pembroke Calf Club; Cindy Snyder, Pembroke Horse Club; and Blair Bromley, Westmeath Community Club.

The recipient of the Renfrew County Farmers Union Trophy for the most deserving first year 4-H member was Wayne Doering of the Pembroke Calf Club.

Ward Robinson of the Beachburg Community Club won a $250 scholarship from the Renfrew Lions' Club. The purpose of Lions Club scholarships is to enable recipients to further their education. They are given to members who have displayed those attributes necessary in becoming a successful 4-H member throughout their 4-H careers.

The Ottawa Citizen award of $300 is being divided among three Westmeath Community Club members; Brenda Bromley, Debbie Bromley, and Susan O'Brien.

Several leaders were recognized for their contributions and dedication.

The Beachburg 4-H Community Club was one of the organizations spotlighted recently at the Renfrew County 4-H Achievement Night at Opeongo High School. Its most outstanding member was David Steven while Kim Vandekamp was the most deserving first-year member.

Kevin Oattes was named the most outstanding member of the Forester's Falls 4-H Club with Sheri White receiving recognition as the most deserving first-year member.
