

Cobden 4-H winners

Cobden has several 4-H Clubs and they were all represented on the stage at Achievement Night. From left are: Leanne Enright, outstanding 4-H Field Crop; Susan Enright, most deserving first-year member in the Calf Club; Dianne Huckabone, most outstanding in the Horse Club; Duane McLaughlin, most deserving first-year member in the Horse Club; Teresa Sheedy, most improved first-year member in the Horse Club, and J.T. Enright, most outstanding in the Calf Club.

Receiving five-year certificates were Margaret Alexander of the Cobden Horticulture Club, Claire Huckabone of the Cobden Horse Club, and Harry Hawkins of the North Renfrew Farm Safety Club.

Members receiving proficiency certificates for successfully completing six projects included Crystal Mackay, David Stephen, and Sandra Wilson of Beachburg; Steven Cartman of Cobden; Bruce and Kevin Oattes of Forester's Falls, and Juanita Behnke and Vicki Fletcher of Pembroke.

Horticulture club members receiving awards for six projects included Natalie Gervais of Westmeath and Marsha Dagg of Forester's Falls.

Receiving awards for completing twelve projects were Murray Wilson of Beachburg, Leanne Enright of Cobden, Kim Schultz of Bromley, Sylvia Gould and Glenda James of Forester's Falls, and Bryce McBride of Westmeath.

Completing eighteen projects were Keith Wren of Cobden, Julie White of Westmeath, and Valerie

Lance of Perretton.

The best 4-H secretary's book was turned in by Leanne Enright of the Cobden Field Crop Club.

Also participating in the achievement night November 2 were clubs from Killaloe, Dacre, Eganville, Lake Dore, and Renfrew and area. Arnprior and area clubs hold a separate awards night.

Jan. 16/85

Trinity United Church, Foresters Falls, honoured its senior members at a program and dinner Sunday. Seated, left to right, are Mary Hawthorne, 88; Millie Patterson, 82; Eva Ross, 82; Ruby Bulmer, 85, and Margaret Byce, 80. Back row: Archie Hawthorne, 85; Bert Ross, 82; Fred Ross, 85; Herb Ross, 86, and Elmer Byce, 87. Bert, Fred, and Herb Ross are brothers.