

2. To furnish and maintain without charge, where no additional poles are required, a metallic circuit within the corporate limits of Cobden to connect with the Proprietors System, such circuit to be and remain the property of the Bell Company.

3. To list the names of the subscribers of the Proprietors in each issue of its Eastern Ontario Telephone Directory during the term of this agreement, at a charge of Twenty-Five Cents (25c.) per name per issue, which charge shall include one copy of directory for each name listed.

W.D.P.
~~4. Not to accept subscribers' contracts or install instruments at points where the Proprietor established without the approval of the Proprietor during the term of this agreement.~~ W.D.P.

