

5

North Renfrew Telephone Company pioneers

Secretary-treasurer Basil Brown, left, and NRTCO board president, Ed Foster, worked hand in hand for many years. Mr. Foster was board president from 1957 until his unexpected death in 1974. Mr. Brown worked for the company from 1941, when he was hired as "secretary-treasurer and troubleman" until he retired in 1975.

This was the NRTCO board with which Ed Foster was serving as president at the time of his death in March of 1974. Front row, from left: secretary-manager Basil Brown, president Ed Foster. Back

5