TWEEDSMUIR HISTORY WORKSHOP

- PURPOSE -
1. A permanent record of local history.
 2. Expresses talents of local people.
 3. Creates interest in the community for young and old; newcomers and longtime settlers.
 4. An authentic story of the community's growth.
 5. A permanent record of community enterprises - buildings, industries, schools, churches, and organizations.
 6. A record of local persons who have helped to improve the community.
 7. To provide an interesting history of the community for future readers.
 8. To express ideas, imagination and planning of the curators and committees through the years.

The curator should be ready to change the construction of the history and thus avoid the monotony of old-time history books.

- THE HISTORY IS -
1. A history of pictures from all eras of photography.
 2. It should be a community effort.
 3. Each page should be dated; titled; with the name of the donor included.
 4. It can be typed, hand-written or printed. Newspaper pictures or clippings should be covered with self-adhesive clear plastic i.e. -clear MacTac.
 5. Financial cost should be fully covered by Women's Institutes.
