

FAMILY LIFESTYLES

LEONA

HOSTESS

Barry's I

CL

OBITUARY

GILES (nee Adrain) Jennie Pearl - widow of the late Bernard Stevenson Giles of Ottawa, Ontario, passed away at the Ottawa Civic Hospital on the 3rd of March, born on the 12th of September 1900 in Combermere, Ontario, Jennie was in her 95th year. She leaves behind her loving daughter, Heather Cook-Fulford of Ottawa. Jennie was predeceased by her son Bernard Adrain, as well as her sisters Cora, Nellie, Florence and Myrtle as well as a brother Harold, her son-in-law Sgt. Frank Cook of the Ottawa Police Department. Jennie was the proud grandmother of James Cook (Sylvie), Randy Cook (Joanne), Cathy Cook (Mitch), David Giles (Maggie), Jenniffer Giles (John) and Craig Giles. She also leaves behind two beautiful great-grandsons, Justin Seguin and Jacob Cunningham. The wake was held at O'Reilly Funeral Home, Barry's Bay, Ontario with funeral services conducted by Rev. Jim Roberts at St. Paul's Anglican Church, Combermere. Interment will be at St. Paul's Cemetery, Combermere in the spring. Pallbearers were nephews Clifford MacFarlane and Murray Bruce of Trenton. Jennie worked at the National Library in Ottawa from 1956 - 1967. She was also a past-president of the Women's Institute in Combermere; also a past president of the Womens Liberal Club of Ottawa