

Mrs. F. W. Wright was successful in passing her professional examinations, and was given credit for her university work, so that her First Class Teacher's Certificate was made Permanent. She spent the summer in Ottawa with Hazel and Frances owing to the illness of her father, who died the following spring of leukemia. While there she attended summer school and secured a certificate in Primary Methods.

WEDDING

MACDONALD-COLLISON
On Saturday, June 16th, Dorothy Phyllis Collison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Collison, of Toronto, became the bride of Lieut. Colin Campbell Macdonald, 40th Highlanders of Canada, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Macdonald, of Clifton. The ceremony was performed at St. Michael and All Angels church, Toronto, by Rev. Dr. Snell.
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin with full-length veil and coronet of orange blossoms. Her corsage bouquet was of hot roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Collison, sister of the bride, wore blue flowered organdy, while the bridesmaids, Mrs. H. Collison, sister-in-law of the bride, and Miss Edna MacCaw, wore pink flowered organdy and Dutch caps of matching material. The larger attendants carried bouquets of pink roses.
Mr. Colin Howie, cousin of the groom, was best man and ushers were Cpl. Woodburn, C.I.C., and Tpr. Hulse, Hospital, C.A.C.
At the reception held at the Cavitha Mansions, The Royal, the bride's mother received in a vestal gown with white accessories, wearing a corsage of yellow roses, and was assisted by the groom's sister wearing navy with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white roses.
For travelling the bride wore a red gabardine suit with white accessories and carried a bag. The couple are spending a honeymoon in Clifton and Cochrane until Lieut. Macdonald leaves for Camp Borden on Saturday. Mrs. Macdonald will return to Toronto.
On the day of the wedding Lieut. Macdonald graduated at the Officers' Training Centre at Brockville, upon completion of a five-month course.

WEDDING

MOORE - PHILLIPS
A young flower decorated Catholic Church on Friday, September 1st, for a very pretty wedding at three o'clock when Edith Henrietta, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Phillips, was united in marriage to Russell George, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Moore, all of Clifton. Rev. J. A. G. Kell officiated.
The bride, given by her father, was lovely in a dress of light blue crepe with a head-dress of white and blue. She carried a bouquet of daisies, sweet peas and ferns. Her bridesmaids wore a dress which her mother had worn at her wedding and she carried a handkerchief which was carried by Mrs. E. Gowan at her wedding. Miss Helen Duffin, who had been the bride at her wedding, was bridesmaid and she carried a bouquet of pink flowers and blue and white. She carried flowers similar to those of the bride. Mr. Wm. E. Phillips, brother of the bride, accompanied her with disabilities in Christ's Street Hospital, was present and acted as groom's attendant.
During the signing of the register, Mr. E. A. Smith sang "Like a Bird" and the "Magnificat". The solo was composed by Mrs. E. Smith of Clifton.
The bride's mother was dressed in a simple blue and the bridesmaid in blue. The groom's father, the bride's father and best man were dressed in dark suits.
Many guests sat down to dinner served by the bride's home. The groom was accompanied with Rev. Dr. Snell and was escorted with a lady. The groom's father, Mr. S. Moore, gave the toast to the bride and Mr. Kell looked on. The bride's father, Mr. E. Phillips, gave the toast to the groom and the couple a cheer was given by the church choir. Later the bride's father, Mr. S. Moore, gave the toast to the bride and the groom and the bride's father, Mr. S. Moore, gave the toast to the bride and the groom.

Board Of Trade Banquet Concludes Cochrane Event

COCHRANE, Sept. 4—A banquet in the dining room of the Albert Hotel, given by the Cochrane Board of Trade, in honor of Col. the Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Minister of Agriculture and Ontario, C.I.C., and Rev. J. A. G. Kell, Chairman of the T. & N. O. Railway Commission and other distinguished guests concluded the official opening of the potato storage warehouse here at the weekend.
Among those present at the banquet were Rev. George E. Harris, of Etobicoke, a member of the official party, Maurice Gowan, of Arton, F. G. Michael, Hall of Hazelton, Pres. E. A. Dadds, Vice-pres. H. Gorton, James Mitchell, and Fred Wilson, all directors of the Cochrane Farmers' Co-operative and Directors of the Cochrane Board of Trade.
One of the guests on the speaking program and speaking following the banquet was J. A. Bradshaw, M. P. In a short address, Mr. Bradshaw emphasized the urgent need of helping returned veterans by the realization of settlement plans in Northern Ontario.
Also speaking was J. A. Harris, M. P. A. Rev. Mr. Harris and Mr. Bradshaw were extremely complimentary of the program undertaken by Col. Kennedy to further the interests of Northern Ontario agriculturists.
Other speakers were Mr. Harris and Rev. Harris.
F. A. White, chairman of the banquet, was president of the Board of Trade, offered a toast to the Co-operative and to agriculture in the North. He was followed by E. A. Dadds.

Cochrane's new potato storage plant
Photo by J. N. Lowe, Cochrane

Cochrane's New Potato Storage Plant Is Opened

Pictured, left to right, at the opening ceremonies at Cochrane's potato storage plant last weekend are: Col. C. E. Reynolds, chairman of the T. & N. O. Railway Commission; Hon. T. L. Kennedy, Ontario Minister of Agriculture; H. O'Neill, of Toronto, Department of Agriculture; W. Montclair, agriculture representative at Cochrane.
Directors of the co-operative whose efforts made possible the construction of the storage plant are shown below. They are, front left to right, E. Genter, vice-president; Fred Wilson, rear standing left to right, J. Mitchell, R. A. Dadds, president and P. Bradshaw.