

PIONEERS

Our Hundredth Anniversary,

How proud we are !

We think we have accomplished much in our generation.

But memory eludes us.

T'is not for us to boast,

Let's not forget the hardy souls

who sailed across the seas

a hundred years ago and more.

T'was they who toiled from light to dark.

Their faith in Canada n'er faltered,

no easy life had they, with oxen, plough and brawn.

They tilled this land that we just take for granted,

Tho' each generation his share has tried to do.

Let's honour those pioneers who made this

Our Canada, a land of freedom and of liberty.

ANNE ENGLAND