

Twelve Things to Remember

The value of time,                      The success of perseverance,
The pleasure of working,              The dignity of simplicity,
The worth of character,                The power of kindness,
The influence of example,              The virtue of patience,
The wisdom of economy,                The obligation of duty,
The improvement of talent,            The joy of originating.

Marshall Field

Think kindly, speak kindly, and act kindly—three steps to harmony.

The Day is Ours

Dear heart
The sun is up
The sky is blue
The world is made
For me and you!

A day all ours
For work and play
Lies straight ahead
The bluebirds say
What happened yesterday
Is dead
But here's to-day.

I say again
The sun is up
The sky is blue
The world is made
For me and you. Mabel Hill

Audrey Spencer

From an inscription on a wall following a bombing, which said:
I believe in the sun, even when it isn't shining.
I believe in love, even when I don't receive it.
I believe in God, even when He is silent.
With that kind of faith, you can go forward with pride behind you, love and courage around you, and hope ahead of you.

Being a Board Director for Sub-Division 15 has been a wonderful experience, and I shall remember the long meetings, but more I shall treasure the friendship of my room-mates, the graduates of 1978-79-80 and the V.I.P.'s. Let us continue to give our best to N. I. endeavours, and we will be surprised at the results. It has all been worth-while. Thanks, I have appreciated the opportunity of serving from good old Grey-Bruce.
