W.I. gave Manor party

Mar 19/71

Members of Monteith Women's Institute and students from Monteith Public School helped residents of South Centennial Manor, Iroquois Falls, to celebrate St. Patrick's Day.

The party took place on March 19, two days after St. Patrick's Day.

While W. I. members handled the refreshments, the students provided the entertainment.

School principal Mr. G. Phillips directed the tumblers, Mrs. J. Kent, the square dancers and Mr. Joe Little, the two short skits.

Mrs. Ouellette of the Manor's auxiliary thanked the W.I. and schoolchildren for giving the residents an enjoyable evening.

Square dancers: Fred Hendry, Peggy Montgomery, Larry Plummer, Alfred Van Luven, Brenda Simon, George Prine, Virginia Doey, Valerie Cline, Cora Bridgeman, Tommy McGee, Marty Peever, Raymond Van Luven, Brent Clarke, Dawn Legendre, Helen Booth, Debbie Lacoursiere, Steven Cottingham.

Tumblers: Curtis Clarke, Susan Plummer, Mike Duclos, Lorraine Shields, Valerie Cline, Barbara Van Luven, Sandra Lea Smith, Jimmy Crites, Danny McClinchey and David Simons.

"Captain Blighter," Keith Cook, Carl Van Luven, Tim Peever, Doyle McBride and Susan Plummer (sound effects.)

"Magicians Revenge," Curtis Clarke, Laurie Cottingham and Joey Arquette.

The pupils were treated to pop and chocolate bars following their performance.

The party travelled to the Manor in Mr. Murray Simon's bus. In addition to the three staff members, Mrs. L. Simon, her daughters and Mrs. M. McGee accompanied the group.

Auxiliary members present: Mrs. Ouellette, Mrs. J. Bishop, and Mrs. A. Boyd; Monteith W. I. members, Mrs. K. Hoffman, Mrs. J. Krikken, Mrs. D. Tinney, Mrs. A. Simon, Mrs. F. Corkill, Mrs. B. Sells, Mrs. A. Vandebosch and daughters Monique and Vera. Other Monteith residents present were Mrs. M. Shields, Mrs. A. Watt, Mrs. M. Booth, Miss H. Demrah, and Mr. A. Simon.
