Marilyn Sylvia Vanier Weds T. E. McClinchey

Holy Martyrs Church, Ansonville, was the scene for the marriage of Marilyn Sylvia Vanier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vanier, of Monteith, to Thomas Edgar McClinchey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer McClinchey of Val Gagne.

Rev. Philip Breen of Ansonville officiated. The church choir sang "Ave Maria," "On This Day O Beautiful Mother," and other appropriate hymns. The church was decorated with gladioli and summer flowers.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and wore a floorlength gown of white nylon net with a fitted bodice of lace with long pointed sleeves and Peter Pan collar trimmed with pearls and sequins. The full net skirt set in bands of lace was worn over taffeta and crinolines. Her headdress, a tiara of pearls and sequins, held in place her shoulderlength veil of nylon net edged with a pink rose.

STRAWBERRY PINK

The maid of honor Miss Donna Lang, of Monteith, wore a ballerina length gown of strawberry pink organza over pink taffeta. She wore a pink veil and pink accessories and carried a bouquet of white flowers.

The two bridesmaids were Mrs. Robert Laflamme of Montrock, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Margaret Vanier of Monteith sister of the bride. They wore gowns designed alike in beige organza over taffeta with short veils and beige accessories. They carried baskets of white flowers.

The best man was Frank Gagne of Ansonville, uncle of the bride and the ushers were Mickey Vanier of Monteith, brother of the bride and Robert Laflamme of Montrock, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

For the reception at the bride's home in Monteith, the bride's mother wore a beige lace sheath dress over taffeta with an azalea pink picture hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother chose an afternoon dress of light blue lace over taffeta with a white hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses.

A wedding dance was held at the Rice Lake Lodge, near MacIntosh Springs. Later, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to Western Canada. For travelling the bride wore a fitted grey suit with white rose corsage and blue accessories. On their return they will reside in Porquis.

Richard Vanier Weds Miss Gail Doris Lang

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the Immaculate Conception Church, Val Gagne, Saturday when Gail Doris Lang, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orvie Lang, Monteith, became the bride of Richard Stanley Vanier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Vanier of Monteith.

Rev. Pierre Morin conducted the ceremony. The altar was decorated with baskets of red and white gladioli and chrysanthemums. Traditional wedding hymns were sung.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floorlength gown of white nylon net and rayon lace over satin. The gown was designed with a lace bodice embroidered with sequins and pearls and a bouffant skirt accented with lace panels. Her floorlength veil of net was held in place by a band of orange blossoms, also worn by the bride's aunt on her wedding day. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

TWO ATTENDANTS

The maid of honor was Miss Raelaine Smith of South Porcupine, cousin of the bride. She wore a blue nylon ballerina length gown. She wore a blue coronet and carried a bouquet of blue carnations.

Miss Jacqueline Lang, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She wore a gown designed similar to the maid-of-honor's in pink nylon net and lace over taffeta. She wore a pink coronet and carried pink carnations.

The best man was M. Vanier, brother of the bridegroom and Robert Lepage of Ansonville was the usher.

On leaving the church, the newlyweds were met by the Monteith Brownie Troop, directed by Brown Owl Mrs. J. Neave and Tawny Owl Mrs. Duhn. The Brownies formed a guard-of-honor and then presented the bride, a troop packie, with a good luck horseshoe of pink and white carnations.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was held for the immediate families at the home of the bride's parents in Monteith. An evening reception took place at the Rice Lake Lodge.

The bride's mother received the guests and wore a brown afternoon dress with a beige hat and accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a beige lace over taffeta gown with a green feathered hat and a corsage of pink carnations.

Later, the newlyweds left on a wedding trip to points west. For travelling the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.
