

"A Wise nation preserves its records, decorates the tombs of its illustrious dead, repairs its great public structures and fosters pride and love of country by perpetual reference to the sacrifices and glories of the past."

Joseph Howe