

Description of Photographs

man busy working on the road where it came down the hill on the far side of the river. I believe that Dad Sager had that job. The buildings on the hill on the far side of the river are those belonging to Bill Buchanan.

- (17) This shows a field of Irish Cobbler potatoes on the Attwater farm in 1948.
- (18) This shows a field of wheat on the Attwater farm in 1949.
- (19) This shows a field of Cartier oats on the Attwater farm in 1949.
- (20) This shows a freshly cut field of wheat on the Attwater farm in 1949.
- (21) This shows a freshly plowed field on the Attwater farm in 1948. The buildings in the distance would be Steve Cain's and one of Norman Fraser's barns.
- (22) This shows a log drive on the Blanche River where it runs through the Attwater Homestead, taken in 1933.
- (23) David and Dorothy Attwater, taken in 1942.
- (24) David and Dorothy Attwater's children, taken in 1958. The three boys from the left are Andrew, John and Michael, with Catherine and the dog Lucky.
- (25) From the left John, Michael and Catherine Attwater with their mother, about 1966.
- (26) From the left, John and Michael Attwater with their father, taken about 1966.
- (27) Andrew and Pansy Attwater, taken about 1966.
- (28) At the left are John and Joyce Attwater with John's father at the right. This was taken on the Elk Lake road in South Robillard near the top of the Macdonald Hill. Taken in 1969.
- (29) This shows the original house on the Attwater Homestead soon after it was built in 1909.