

Family & Consumer Affairs
1985-86

Seward Womens Institute

Convener - Dorothy Gregory

Box 2233, New Liskeard

Ant. Pof. 1 Po - 647-5106

Plans were made at a special meeting on April 22nd /85 at the home of Agnes Arts to plan the dinner for the District Annual meeting and to count the Pennies for Friendship.

A special birthday cake & gift in honour of a Life Member, Ella McFarlane at Ruby Bryan's home. Ella was presented with a floral arrangement, made by a new member, Bertha Apell.

Motto, children need very little advice if watching good example.

Motto Fishing, a good way to relax.

Roll Call A new way to prepare fish or The big one that got away.

Roll Call Bring a visitor.

Program was "A trip to Hills Lake Fish Hatchery."

He had a picnic lunch at the "Narleton Hall Fair grounds."

Members were treated to a conducted tour of the Hatchery & areas by the guide Peri (Phil) Carleton, who answered many questions asked by the interested group of ladies. Slides of the Hatchery from the beginning to the present time, accompanied by a suitable commentary